Cathecism of the Week

X. Indulgences Reference: Catechism of the Catholic Church

1471 The doctrine and practice of indulgences in the Church are closely linked to the effects of the sacrament of Penance.

What is an indulgence?

"An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints."

"An indulgence is partial or plenary according as it removes either part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin."

Indulgences may be applied to the living or the dead."

Plenary Indulgence of DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, 2nd Sunday of Easter

Ref. JP II 13 June 2002

A Plenary indulgence, granted under the usual conditions as follows:

- Sacramental confessions
- Eucharistic Communion
- Prayer of the intentions of the Pope in the Church of Chapel
- Complete detachment from the affection for a sin even venial sin

Take part in the devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus, i.e., Merciful Jesus, I trust in you.

Partial Indulgence, granted to the faithful, who, at least with contrite heart, pray the merciful Lord Jesus a legitimate approved invocation.
